

Abergynolwyn's Slate Heritage

Gwynedd's slate landscapes, including Abergynolwyn, Bryneglwys Quarry and the Talylyn Railway, have been nominated to become the 33rd World Heritage Site, joining the likes of The Grand Canyon, The Great Wall of China and Machu Picchu on the prestigious global list.

Come and find out more at Y GANOLFAN,
ABERGYNOLWYN on Sat 4th April, from 3 to 7pm

*

- *Share Stories about the quarry
- *Guided Slate Walk around the village from CADW's Judith Alfrey
- *Talk from Archeologist and Slate Heritage Expert Dafydd Gwyn
- *Children's Slate Art exhibition

To record the memories, stories and films of Bryneglwys, we need your help. If you would like to join in with this vital role, and have stories or memories which are your own or have been passed down to you, please contact Liz Hutchinson 07585 604525 lizhutch64@gmail.com.

